

21st International Project Week 2019
20th – 24th May 2019

Lecturer: Delia-Ileana Tanc

University/Company: DGASPC Oradea

Country: Romania

Palliative Care in Cancer

Content:

What is palliative care about and who gives palliative care,
What issues are addressed in palliative care and when is it used/needed,
How could a person access palliative care,
The difference in palliative care and hospice. Who pays for palliative care,
Cancer: psychological and social implications,
The role of family and palliative care.

Methods:

Face-to-face interaction with students,
Classroom debates, based discussions on power point presentation,
Team work and round tables to discuss about cancer, and palliative care.

Competences and skills to be acquired:

Knowledge about palliative care,
Basic information about cancer,
Ability to identify social institutions related to palliative care,
How to apply the knowledge and skills in a peculiar case.

Prerequisites:

Basic knowledge about social care.

Language of instruction:

English

Recommended for:

Sozialwissenschaften