

23rd International Project Week 12th – 16th July 2021

Lecturer: Michelle Robertson

University/Company: The College of St. Scholastica

Country: USA

Native American Indigenous People-The Ojibwe of Minnesota

Content:

Modules will include| a brief history of US Federal policy for American Indians, relational world view-values & beliefs, exploration of some of the 570 Federally recognized tribes, political vs minority status of American Indians, Indian Child Welfare, and looking globally at Indigenous people.

Methods:

Lecture, small and large group discussions, media, self-reflection, reading, and activities.

Competences and skills to be acquired:

Students will acquire knowledge about North American Indigenous People. Explore various North American Tribes. Learn skills needed to work with marginalized groups. Analyze the United Nations Indigenous Peoples Bill of Rights.

Prerequisites:

Desire to learn about Indigenous people and Tribes from the United States, especially the Ojibway of Minnesota.

Language of instruction:

English

Recommended for:

Interdisciplinary